Skate Canada Rules

According to the Skate Canada policies and procedures Rule 2206, the applicant must abide and understand the following rules:

7.0 TIME LIMIT OF SANCTIONS

- 7.1 All sanctions are valid for a specified competition or event only.
- 7.2 Where a carnival or exhibition is being repeated on the same ice, the sanction may cover all performances given over a period of seven days (Sundays included). A new sanction will be required for any extension beyond the seven days.

11.0 AGREEMENT OF APPLICANTS APPLYING FOR A SANCTION

In applying for a sanction the applicant agrees:

- 11.1 that they are aware of all Skate Canada rules covering the event
- 11.2 that they will abide by all such rules
- 11.3 that they will be liable for the payment of applicable fees
- 11.4 that they will carry out all instructions that they may receive from Skate Canada regarding the sanctioned event
- 11.5 that no responsibility or claim for damages or losses, financial or otherwise, shall lie against Skate Canada, its officers or members by reason of a sanction or sanctions being granted, partly granted, or not granted by Skate Canada
- 11.6 that every program, folder, and advertisement shall state in a prominent place, preferably the front cover or title page, that the event is sanctioned by Skate Canada.
- 11.7 that for events or activities conducted by non-member organizations, Skate Canada reserves the right to require that a bond be issued by a recognized bonding company, in any amount felt necessary, be posted to guarantee the fulfillment of all agreements

- 11.8 that Skate Canada shall be entitled to have an official representative in attendance without charge at any sanctioned competition and event
- 11.9 Skate Canada reserves the right to refuse any application for a sanction which it deems would not be in the best interests of Skate Canada. This action shall be at the discretion of the Skate Canada Executive Committee
- 11.10 Skate Canada reserves the right to cancel any sanction at any time for what it considers to be just cause. The cancellation will not take place until the parties concerned have been granted a hearing. When a sanction is refused or cancelled, the fee paid shall be refunded to the person who made the application
