INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members of Skate Canada

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Skate Canada (the Entity), which comprise:

- the statement of financial position as at March 31, 2025
- the statement of changes in net assets for the year then ended
- the statement of operations for the year then ended
- the statement of cash flows for the year then ended
- and notes to financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies

(Hereinafter referred to as the “financial statements”).

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements, present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Entity as at end of March 31, 2025, and its results of operations, and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the “Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements” section of our auditor’s report.

We are independent of the Entity in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Canada and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Entity's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Entity or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Entity's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists.

Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of the financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Entity's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Entity's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Entity to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

SKATE CANADA

Notes to Financial Statements

Year ended March 31, 2025

1. Purpose of the Organization:

Skate Canada (the "Organization") is the national skating governing body whose purpose is to develop, regulate and promote skating in Canada. Sanctioned skating clubs, skating schools and certified professional coaches are members of Skate Canada.

Skate Canada is incorporated under the Canada Not-for-profit Corporations Act. The Organization is a Registered Canadian Amateur Athletic Organization within the meaning of the Income Tax Act of Canada and is, therefore, not subject to income taxes and has the authority to issue donation receipts.

The Provincial and Territorial Sports Organizations responsible for skating in their province, referred to as Sections, are autonomous, separately incorporated organizations, and are not included in these financial statements. Skate Canada collects membership fees from its members and pays the Sections their portion of these fees which are recorded as Section payments expense.

2. Significant accounting policies:

The financial statements have been prepared by management in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations, and include the following significant accounting policies:

(a) Revenue recognition:

The Organization follows the deferral method of accounting for contributions for not-for-profit organizations.

Externally restricted contributions, including certain government and other grants, are deferred and recognized as revenue in the period in which the related expenses are incurred. Unrestricted contributions are recognized as revenue when received or receivable if the amount to be received can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured.

Government and other grants revenue, that is earned through specific-deliverable contracts, is recognized based on the completion of deliverables as identified in contractual agreements.

Membership, Safe Sport and Assessment fee revenue are recorded as revenue in the period received or receivable.

Sponsorship revenue is recognized on a straight-line basis over the term of the related agreement. Merchandising revenue is recognized in the period earned.

Event revenue, including revenue from the 2025 World Figure Skating Championships, is recognized in the year the event occurs and event deliverables are completed.

SKATE CANADA

Notes to Financial Statements

2. Significant accounting policies (continued):

(a) Revenue recognition (continued):

Contributed goods and services are recorded at the fair value at the time of receipt if the value can be reasonably estimated and the related goods and services would otherwise have been purchased. These financial statements do not reflect the value associated with numerous hours contributed by volunteers to assist the Organization in carrying out its service delivery activities.

Contributions restricted for endowment purposes are recognized as direct increases in net assets in the period received.

Interest income is recognized on an accrual basis as earned. Dividends are recognized as of the dividend payment date. Gains or losses on the disposal of investments are determined using the average cost method. All investment revenues including realized and unrealized gains and losses on investments are recognized in the statement of operations.

(b) Financial instruments:

Financial instruments are recorded at fair value on initial recognition. Equity instruments that are quoted in an active market are subsequently measured at fair value. All other financial instruments are subsequently measured at cost or amortized cost, unless management has elected to carry the instruments at fair value. The Organization has elected to carry its investments at fair value.

Sales and purchases of investments are recorded on the trade date. Transaction costs incurred on the acquisition of financial instruments measured subsequently at fair value are expensed as incurred. All other financial instruments are adjusted by transaction costs incurred on acquisition and financing costs. These costs are amortized using the straight-line method.

Financial assets are assessed for indicators of impairment on an annual basis at the end of the fiscal year. Where an indicator of impairment is present, the Organization determines if there is a significant adverse change in the expected amount or timing of future cash flows from the financial asset. If there is a significant adverse change in the expected cash flows, the carrying value of the financial asset is reduced to the highest of the present value of the expected cash flows, the amount that could be realized from selling the financial asset or the amount the Organization expects to realize by exercising its right to any collateral. If events and circumstances reverse in a future period, an impairment loss will be reversed to the extent of the improvement, not exceeding the initial impairment charge.

SKATE CANADA

Notes to Financial Statements

2. Significant accounting policies (continued):

(c) Foreign currency translation

Foreign currency transactions are initially recorded at the rate of exchange prevailing at the date of translation. Thereafter, monetary assets and liabilities are translated at the exchange rate in effect at the statement of financial position date. Other assets and liabilities are translated at the exchange rate in effect at the transaction date. Items appearing in the current statement of operations are translated at the exchange rate in effect at the transaction date. Exchange gains and losses are included in the statement of operations.

(d) Capital assets:

Capital assets are stated at cost. Amortization is provided on the straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives as follows:

Asset	Rate
Computer equipment and software	3 years
Competition equipment	5 years
Database system	10 years
Office equipment	5 years
Digital transformation project	7 years
Tenant improvements	15 years

When a capital asset no longer contributes to the Organization's ability to provide services, its carrying amount is written down to its residual value.

(e) Cash and cash equivalents:

Cash and cash equivalents include deposits with financial institutions that can be withdrawn without prior notice or penalty and short-term deposits with an original maturity of ninety days or less.

(f) Collections:

Collections are carried at cost, being the purchase price of acquired items or the fair value of contributed items at the time of receipt. The Organization's collection is not subject to amortization. The collection is comprised of works of art and other similar assets that are of historical significance to figure skating in Canada. The collection is held for public exhibition and education.

For collection items that are contributed, the fair value is recognized as a direct increase in net assets. When an item is purchased for the collections where the purchase price is substantially below fair value the difference between consideration paid and fair value is recognized as a contribution.

SKATE CANADA

Notes to Financial Statements

2. Significant accounting policies (continued):

(g) Use of estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from these estimates. Estimates are reviewed annually and as adjustments become necessary, they are recognized in the financial statements in the period in which they become known.

3. Skater Trust Fund

The Organization administers trust funds of behalf of certain skaters who have earned money from sponsorship contracts, equipment endorsements, advertising, participation in competitions and other activities. An administrative fee was not charged for this service. These funds are reported as trust assets and trust liabilities as the Organization has no title to these assets, but solely administers them on behalf of the skaters. The Skater Trust Fund was closed in the year.

The Organization believes it has sufficient financial resources to settle its obligations throughout the next fiscal year and beyond.

(c) Market risk:

Market risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk comprises three types of risk: currency risk, interest rate risk and other price risk.

(i) Currency risk:

Currency risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rates. The Organization is exposed to foreign currency risk from its cash and investments denominated in U.S. dollars. At year-end, the Organization held $56,978 (2024 - $73,219) of cash and $2,892,158 (2024 - $6,395,514) of investments denominated in U.S. dollars.

(ii) Interest rate risk:

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Organization is exposed to interest rate risk with respect to its fixed income investments as disclosed in note 4.

(iii) Other price risk:

Other price risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices (other than those arising from interest rate risk or currency risk), whether those changes are caused by factors specific to the individual financial instrument or its issuer, or factors affecting all similar financial instruments traded in the market. The Organization is exposed to other price risk with respect to its equity investments as disclosed in note 4.

These risks continued to be impacted in fiscal 2025 by fluctuations in inflation, interest rates and market prices. Management believes that its financial risks are appropriately mitigated and do not pose a significant risk to the Organization's operations. Other than the establishment of reserve funds as disclosed in note 11(b), there have been no significant changes in the policies, procedures and methods used to manage these financial risks in the year.
